

ISS Research Seminar - Summer 2017

Demography & Social Inequality

New Directions in Empirical Social Research

- | | |
|----------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 19 April | Social inequality and demographic behaviour: cross-national differences in the importance of parental socio-economic status
Aart C. Liefbroer (NIDI) |
| 26 April | Societal changes in family and personal networks
Theo van Tilburg (VU Amsterdam) |
| 03 May | Religious reorganisation and long term decline: Recent Polish migrants' religiosity in Ireland
Antje Röder (Philipps-Universität Marburg) |
| 10 May | A randomised controlled trial of residential change and criminal recidivism
David Kirk (University of Oxford) |
| 17 May | Is buying 'green' a signal of trustworthiness?
Joël Berger (Universität Zürich) |
| 24 May | Why are women more effective at collective action when they are working with other women?
Macartan Humphreys (Columbia University and WZB) |
| 31 May | Differentiated threat and the genesis of prejudice: Group-specific antecedents of homonegativity, Islamophobia, anti-Semitism and anti-immigrant attitudes
Bart Meulemann (KU Leuven) |
| 14 June | Temporal changes in attitudes toward immigrants across European countries
Moshe Semyonov (Tel Aviv University) |
| 21 June | Educational inequality, information barriers and tracking: evidence from two randomised experiments
Carlo Barone (Sciences Po) |
| 28 June | The dynamics of income inequality in China in a comparative perspective
Tak Wing Chan (University College London) |
| 05 July | Challenges and opportunities for European comparative research
Rory Fitzgerald (City, University of London) |
| 12 July | Sibling similarity in family formation and in early socioeconomic trajectories
Marcel Raab (Universität Mannheim) |
| 19 July | Population forecasting in light of changing migration patterns
Eva Kibele (Statistisches Landesamt Bremen) |
| 26 July | The impact of migration on education of migrants and their three generation offspring
Ayşe Güveli (University of Essex) |

Wednesdays, 4:00 – 5:30 pm
Room S24 (106 - Seminar Building)

INSTITUTE OF SOCIOLOGY
AND SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY